PUBLIC NOTICE

THE FISCAL BUDGET FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 2023/2024

The National Treasury, in ensuring openness and accountability in financial matters as spelt out in Article 201 of the Constitution, hereby invites Government Departments and Agencies, the private sector, non-governmental organizations and individuals to submit proposals on tax policy measures for consideration by the Cabinet Secretary for National Treasury and Economic Planning in preparation of the Finance Bill, 2023.

The proposals should echo with the Economic Recovery Strategy and the country's economic blue print Vision 2030. In particular Kenyans are encouraged to submit tax proposals that will facilitate achievement of the government objectives in Agriculture, Micro, Small and Medium Enterprise (MSMEs) economy, Housing and Settlement, Healthcare, Digital Superhighway and Creative Economy.

In addition, the proposals may include measures on regulatory reforms, revenue administration reforms, and any other measures that may enhance macroeconomic stability and reposition the economy on an inclusive and sustainable growth trajectory.

The submissions should be specific on the proposed amendment to the tax law, supported by a statement on the issue to be addressed and a clear justification for the proposed amendment.

In order to facilitate timely consultations and adequate consideration, the proposals should be submitted in writing to the undersigned and a soft copy sent through the email budgetproposals@treasury.go.ke, not later than 16th December, 2022.
